

ATUL PANASE

INDIA

Atul panase is a Master in Fine Art from North Maharashtra University of Jalgaon – India. A well-known freelance artist, cartoonist and photographer based in Dubai, UAE, he is equally conversant with using varied mediums including water colors, inks, pastels and acrylic. His paintings grace the walls of several homes and corporate offices in the UAE, USA, Australia, Kenya and India, and many of his works have been reproduced as calendars.

An experienced illustrator and graphic designer, this Dubai-based visual artist won the Silver Award in Lynx Dubai 2010, besides being chosen for SIKKA ART FAIR, an annual art event founded by Dubai Culture & Arts Authority. Atul's water color was also among the select exhibits at Shanghai Zhujiajiao International Watercolor Exhibition in November 2012 at Quanhua Watercolor Art Gallery, Shanghai where his work came 95 out of the 3000 entries from 62 countries.

Of all his achievements, the one that Atul takes special pride in is the fact that he has imparted his skills to more than 1500 students of over 30 nationalities through classes and art workshops held at the Dubai International Art Centre, Tashkeel, Sharjah Art Foundation and Art*ry. He is also a visiting faculty at the University of Sharjah as well as several other academic institutions, where his classes are extremely popular with students.